The Whole Family (A day in the life)

Rev. Dr. Jeni Prigmore
UB Founder

*Every day's a miracle
Each moment is a gift —
As we breathe in possibility
We exhale with a lift
Of Spirits, Knowing
We're the ones
Who've inherited eternity:
God's own daughters
And His sons —
Sure of our paternity:
We really are—ALL ONE.*

Universal Brotherhood Movement, Inc was founded in 1976 by Rev. Drs Rick and Jeni Prigmore. In our UB GoodNews Newsletter Spring Edition 2018 you can enjoy reading the birthing stories of UB.

Prayer Land...

In "Prayer Land" I go with intentions pure: sometimes very focused, and on other occasions, because I need that "God close feeling" to keep me grounded and lifted in the same visit.

I take "the cares and concerns" that others have asked me to carry there. Always feeling lighter at the "Amen" time; knowing that Mother/Father/God has taken the weight from my shoulders (thoughts) into the Great Heart capable of all blessing and healing at the highest level.

Willingly, reverently I travel there, effortlessly- just allowing it to happen through me.

I am filled with Gratitude.

“Honor, Integrity, Commitment” Ingredients of the Ideal Universal Brotherhood Minister/Director

By Rev. Rosemary Cathcart

Perhaps you’ve seen something in a previous UB GoodNews about the role of an M/D, but I wanted to take some time to specifically address this vital “cog in the wheel” of UB.

Minister/Directors are the “eyes and ears” of not only our Founders, Rick and Jeni Prigmore, but of our Executive Director, Robin Morini and our entire Board of Directors. If an M/D falls down on the job, the infrastructure that is UB begins to unravel. Unfortunately, because of how we are structured as an International Ministerial organization, it can sometimes take weeks to discover an M/D’s oversight, mis-step or lack of preparation and follow through. We are authorizing “legal entities” with each ordination, which requires conscientious ministers in every M/D position. I also realize it’s impossible to be conscientious without a clear understanding of what’s expected. So here goes:

When I first moved to Nashville, TN from South Florida, I reached out to UB’s Founders Rick and Jeni Prigmore asking if there was any type of an expanded role that I might be able to play in my beloved Universal Brotherhood.

To my surprise and delight, the role of “Minister/Director” had just been created and I was being considered as a prospect. What delightful “good news” to this recently transplanted Floridian who was struggling with a bit too much downtime. I was, however, a bit put off at the idea of being considered for the role, but at the time I did not have a clear understanding of the inner workings of UB.

From its inception in 1976 until early 1990, Rick and Jeni Prigmore had single-handedly ordained every person requesting ordination with UB. Regularly criss-crossing the country two to three times a year, they dutifully organized, strategized and paid for every trip with their own money. Now, as UB was beginning to grow, the need to expand their scope had become obvious to them both. Even if it was a bit disappointing not to be able to meet with each candidate personally, their wisdom and business acumen took precedence.

The expectations, standards and duties of our Minister/Directors are the same today as they were in 1990 when I joyfully accepted this open-ended post. I’d like to reiterate the goals and the duties of what being a Minister/Director encompasses, and squelch some bizarre myths that have popped up in these past 29 years. My personal goal is always to invite everyone in this extraordinary organization to be on the same page, as we all are growing our ministries together, step by step.

The Duties of a Minister/Director

- #1. To be the contact person in your area for Universal Brotherhood Movement and to answer all inquiries in a timely manner.
- #2. To accept requests for ordinations, schedule personal interviews with prospective candidates, discuss the background of the organization and assist in writing the biographical sketch to the office, if necessary.
- #3. Upon receipt of the credentials prepared by the office, schedule and perform the ordination ceremony for the candidate(s). This can be done in your home or office, or at a mutually decided upon location.
- #4. Immediately following the completion of the ordination(s), fill out the paperwork, making sure to address each section of the paperwork in detail, and return IMMEDIATELY to our main office in Florida.
- #5. Once the completed paperwork has been received, UB sends the newly ordained minister a “Welcome” letter along with their dated (for one year) minister’s identification card.

Every Ordination is a special moment for the Minister/Director performing the ceremony, and hopefully, an exceptional one for the newly ordained minister. As such, it deserves preparation and a level of respectful reverence. I’ve learned a great deal in these past 29 years of performing ordinations, not the least of which is to state an expected dress code for the ceremony! This came about as I was performing an off-site ordination at a candidate’s home, only to find said candidate in a bathing suit, accompanied by her large extended family all dressed in similar fashion. It was a moment my Type-A, very traditional personality and I did our best to get through. And we did, quite nicely, actually.

My process now includes one or more conversations with the candidate, either on the phone, via email or in person, to get an idea of their personality and to ask what their vision of the ceremony might be. I always encourage them to invite friends and family to the ordination to help mark the occasion. Depending on circumstances and timing of the event, I am always prepared to offer sparkling water, lemons and limes and various treats for everyone to enjoy prior to or following the ceremony.

Rick and Jeni Prigmore have always held the belief that real friendships and connections happen around food, and I agree. For this particular ordination on October 8, 2019, I had the privilege of Ordaining David Wilson, who is active in both the recovery community and the Native American ceremonial community. As such, he brought along a number of ceremonial pieces to place on and around the altar, which was set up in his honor.

Creating a climate of community, honoring all of the deep, abiding values that are familiar to UB Ministers worldwide, is what each and every ordination is supposed to represent. That, along with the original vision held by Rick and Jeni Prigmore when they took the "idea" of UB and molded it into a concrete reality for all of us to share. Still based on the concept of an individual's ability to spread the "I AM" consciousness, The Prigmores' original vision has now morphed into a worldwide organization we all have the privilege of participating in.

The centuries old tradition of “Ordaining” new Ministers, in combination with the gracious tradition of sharing specially prepared food and beverages are an inviting backdrop to UB’s Ordination practice. If you have been a Minister in good standing with UB for 2 years or more, and if you have the time and energy required to carry out the duties of a Minister/Director in your area, and if you are being urged by a calling from your own Deep Internal Body Wisdom to serve in this way ~ it may be your time to serve UB in an expanded capacity. If any of what I’ve said in this article appeals to you as a way of spreading the “Light” which is Universal Brotherhood Movement, Inc., please reach out to me or to Executive Director Robin Morini, and we will set the process in motion.

“No” Is A Complete Sentence

by Rev. Kelly Graham

We say yes too much. We do it because:

- we want to take care of others; or
- especially the females among us have taken on the role of caretaker for others; or
- we want others to like us; or
- we secretly hope they notice how much better we do whatever we’ve said “yes” to than the last person who did it; or
- we think that, as ministers, we’re just kind of “supposed” to handle anything that comes our way; or
- we just think it’s easier / quicker / better to do it ourselves; or
- Some combination of all the above, etc.

NO

is a complete sentence. It does not require justification or explanation

We say yes too much. But that two-letter word “No” really is a complete sentence. All by itself. It’s at least as complete a sentence as the word “Yes,” and it’s probably a lot more powerful, too.

Let’s see what some inarguably successful folks have suggested about saying “No”:

“The difference between successful people and very successful people is that very successful people say no to almost everything.” – Warren Buffett

Tim Cook, describing Steve Jobs: “There is no one better at turning off the noise that is going on around him. That allows him to focus on a few things and say no to many things. Few people are really good at that.”

“There is nothing so useless as doing efficiently that which should not be done at all.” – Peter Drucker

Jobs prophetically supported this notion of saying no at an Apple Worldwide Developers Conference in 1997. He said:

Continued...

“People think focus means saying yes to the thing you've got to focus on. But that's not what it means at all. It means saying no to the hundred other good ideas that there are. You have to pick carefully. I'm actually as proud of the things we haven't done as the things I have done. Innovation is saying no to 1,000 things.”

So the message I’m getting – and I hope you are too, Dear Reader — is: JUST. SAY. NO.

This is a pretty big subject, and it’s an extremely powerful stance to make in your life, and in your relationships, and in your work.

It’s been suggested that “More effort is wasted doing things that don't matter than is wasted doing things inefficiently. And if that is the case, elimination is a more useful skill than optimization.” In other words: saying no is a REALLY smart move.

There are a number of reasons saying “no” could be brilliant for you. Among them:

- To better channel your most important and scarcest resource: your time
- To avoid distractions in your day
- To keep you focused on your goals
- To help the people in your life (clients, family, friends) learn to value your time as the serious gift it is
- To preserve the opportunity to say “yes”
- To perform better – if I am working on fewer things, it’s logical to think my performance in those areas where I can now concentrate would improve
- Specialists are valued more highly. By saying “no” you specialize in a very visible way

Continued...

- To back away from being a people-pleaser
- To preserve your energy as much as possible so you can both be a better performer and in a better position to consider requests on your time

Economist Tim Harford notes that “Every time we say yes to a request, we are also saying no to anything else we might accomplish with the time. When you say no, you are only saying no to one option. When you say yes, you are saying no to every other option. No is a decision. Yes is a responsibility.”

We’ve been saying yes to so much for so long that I suspect it’s not something we can easily change overnight. So start practicing NOW. Begin at home or with friends, in situations where saying “no” is not so fraught. And never apologize for your “no.” Practice saying “no” with confidence. It helps to have a few handy phrases at the ready that you’ve practiced delivering until they sound just right. Author Christine Carter suggests this one as a general starting point: “Thank you for asking, but that isn’t going to work out for me.” Try it. Say it out loud. Feels good, doesn’t it? \*ahhh***

How might saying “no” work out in “real life?” Well, here’s one example: Apple was fighting for its life and reportedly months away from bankruptcy when Steve Jobs returned as interim CEO. Jobs learned that by becoming people-pleasers who said “yes” to myriad retailer requests, Apple had ballooned to offer more than 350 products.

Jobs, in his focused brilliance, reduced the 350 products to just 10, a move considered a huge gamble at the time. What happened? Well, everyone knows that today Apple is one of the most valuable companies in the world. And specifically, “Jobs’ mastery of saying no caused Apple to go from a loss of $1.04 billion to a $309 million profit.”

So here’s my ask to you: will you join me in saying no? We’ll discuss more ideas and details around this subject, including the simple 3 step goals exercise Warren Buffett gave his personal pilot. And our motto is: JUST. SAY. NO.

A Life Well Lived

By Rev. Joyce Oliver

We each make decisions every day not knowing where they will ultimately lead us. In 1984 Colin Tipping left the country he'd called home all his life to come to America and "opened a door" that would touch truly countless lives.

Did he dream he might meet and marry the beautiful woman whose creative vision brought joy, beauty and healing to those she met? Together Colin and JoAnn became a powerful force for change.

Maybe I first met them at the home of Rick and Jeni Prigmore in 1989—they came often to the Peace Circle on Wednesday evenings. Or was it at The Center for New Beginnings in Dahlonega, GA where the then-Rev. Colin Tipping and JoAnn were creating the "Together We Heal" cancer retreats based on the work being done at Commonweal in San Francisco? They would go on to create the Radical Forgiveness work which has been taught and shared in probably 12 countries and continues to touch countless lives ("many" would be too small a word here).

Global 13 Publications, Inc.
www.radicalforgiveness.com

Colin was ordained by Rev. Drs. Rick and Jeni Prigmore in Marietta, GA on May 1, 1994. Colin served Universal Brotherhood Movement, Inc. as a Minister/Director, and after earning his Doctorate of Divinity he led U.B. University for a number of years, mentoring, supporting and challenging us as only Colin could. Through it all, he wrote and wrote and wrote! Thirteen books in all I believe—quite a feat for anyone!

Yet another much-loved accomplishment was a 1995 collaboration with Revs. Gregory Possman, George Poirier and Dennis McCauley to co-create a men's group, The Chiron Brotherhood, that would have life-changing effects for each of the men who stepped forward to reclaim their wholeness/holiness as men.

Even Colin's final Celebrations of Life (yes, two of them!) were an invitation to “own” every part of our life and let it be a reflection of our own unique Spirit. He returned home to Source on June 28, 2019; though if you pick up one of his books or listen carefully for the sound of his mischievous voice, I believe you may still feel him encouraging us to embrace forgiveness, love and what lies beyond this experience we call “life”!

From Amazon: Colin Tipping is the creator of what has come to be recognized as one of the most powerful leading-edge technologies for personal and spiritual growth today -- Radical Forgiveness.

Colin is the acknowledged authority on the application of this technology to the "healing" of individuals, families, races, corporations, and communities. He is an award-winning author and leads workshops around the world. Those who have praised his work include John Bradshaw, Mark Victor Hanson, Caroline Myss, Neale Donald Walsch and Gregg Braden.

The main characteristic of his work is a practical spirituality that is simple, honest, straight-forward and unpretentious. The bedrock theme running through all his work is that there is divine purpose in everything and that everything that occurs, happens not TO us but FOR us. Therefore, at the spiritual level, there is nothing to forgive. This is the essence of his Radical Forgiveness work and is the thread that runs through everything. It is an optimistic form of spirituality which is essentially free from judgment, blame, resentment, guilt and fear.

DreamScape Consciousness

By Rev. Aurora Hill

Creation. It didn't just happen one time a long long time ago... WE are at the cutting edge of creation in every moment. We are the living Oneness that is creating. Creating the next moment, in our own lives and in the lives of every being, every creature, every system of relationships that our lives touch. Creation is the result of an infinite number of "I Am's" leaning into the next step; whatever that "step" is for that particular entity's growth and survival. "I AM" is the creation of every next step I take and experience. God, the Divine, the Source, Great Spirit, the Supreme... in whatever language we choose, is the vital energy, the spark, the magic that enables our infinite journey in this cosmos to thrive and TAKE that next step. We (free will) are creating by the grace of the Divine Vital Energy which is infinite and non-judgmental. The Living Oneness of Vital Energy (L*O*V*E*) is a collective creation whether we are building or destroying, whether we are empowered or enabling, whether we are co-operating or challenging. No matter whether we are conscious or unconscious of our choices, we are the creators of the future. We are manifesting exactly what we put out there.

I am experiencing the Divine Living Oneness of Vital Energy (L*O*V*E*) exactly how I am creating it. I also, experience each and every bit of anger, judgment, and fear just as everyone does. We cannot dismiss what goes on in the world. However, I can choose how I respond and what I do with it. I AM choosing consciously, giving where I am able and paying attention to the injustice, inequality and fear while being in integrity to my commitment to feed the L*O*V*E*.

[An Excerpt from the upcoming book DreamScape Consciousness by Aurora Hill c. 2019]

Rev. Aurora's book on living our DreamScape consciously is scheduled to be published in the spring of 2020. The book and set of 25 inspirational cards are the result of many years of Dream Analysis workshops and numerous gatherings focused on personal growth and intentional living in the DreamScape of our lives.

What Does UB Have To Offer? Harvesting the Gifts of UB

Rev. Robin Morini
UB Communications Office

Throughout the years, people have asked: What does UB have to offer me?

As I ponder the answer to this question, my heart fills with the joy I feel every day while talking with UB ministers from all over the world, reading requests for ordinations, enjoying the love notes tucked into envelopes mailed to the office, learning about individual ministries and so much more.

As my thoughts continue I see UB as an amazing quantum field where one can recognize, and create their highest spiritual potential. Within this UB quantum field one will not find grading systems, systems of judgment or competitive degrees.

You will find the potential to develop, from the heart, actions of loving service as each individual minister recognizes their potential as a vessel of Light and Love, joy and balance.

Through the ordination process, UB opens the path for each of us to manifest our spiritual goals into the workings of our material world. Some of the services created by UB ministers include places of worship, health spas, healing centers, internet classes, internet churches and street ministries where people gather to share prayers, counsel, comfort, guidance, community and ceremony. Other ministers extend their services as volunteers in hospitals, hospice, rehabilitation centers...and these are just a few of the many, many possibilities where UB lights the path for UB ministers and those seeking their services.

Below I've shared a list of what UB offers to us as we expand upon our spiritual paths.

Ordination: Universal Brotherhood offers a face-to-face, in person ordination.

Ordination includes a process of acceptance, if all requirements are met, upon receipt of the required spiritual bio-sketch, photo, Privacy Form, Addendum to Ordination form, ordination payment and first year payment.

Unleashing The Power Of Reiki

By Rev. Shalandra Abbey

Some say it isn't possible to heal with your hands. Others say you must be born with the ability. As a full-time Reiki Master for 26 years, I can tell you without doubt that it is possible, and anyone of any age can do it following a 12-hour First Degree Reiki class.

Having shared the gift of Reiki Natural Healing in Hawaii and around the globe, and having initiated almost 2,000 people into this sacred healing art, I still get 'chicken skin' when I place my hand on top of a student's head and it starts the flow of healing energy in their own hands.

In 1936 Hawayo Takata, who was born in a sugarcane camp on the island of Kauai, returned from a trip to Japan and unleashed the gift of Reiki to the western world. From these sacred islands a wondrous offering was allowed to run freely to those who could understand and accept the gift of healing that had been entrusted to them.

Ancient legends of healing miracles were dismissed because people had not witnessed recent demonstrations of it. Mrs. Takata showed people — even those who didn't believe in it — that these miracles were possible. She taught Reiki at University of Hawaii at Manoa, and had it approved to be practiced in Hawaii hospitals in 1974.

Many medical doctors support Reiki. George Remisovsky, M.D., says, "Reiki energy medicine is a fine introduction to a technique which can truly enhance our capacity to make our patients well. I wholeheartedly recommend it." Larry Dossey, M.D., comments, "Reiki is increasingly being incorporated into modern medicine because of one compelling reason: It works."

*Shalandra Abbey has been a full-time Reiki Master and UB Minister/Director in Hawaii and around the globe for over 25 years. She is author of Living a Life of Reiki and member of The Reiki Alliance, an international, professional organization of Reiki Masters. ## A Peace Prayer

By Rev. Aklea Klock Althoff

We, as citizens of Planet Earth, these United States and the Universe declare in our hearts the presence of PEACE now.

Toward this end, we accept our responsibility to be Love and Light; to know every person as a part of us; to see every person as our friend regardless of the role he or she plays or the costume he or she wears; to do all we can to heal our Earth.

We acknowledge that in our past, we have allowed our pain, guilt, suffering, fear and judgment to keep us separate from others so that we made ourselves lesser or greater than them. We give up all those negative thoughts and emotions which create and maintain separation.

In the Presence of Peace now, we know all others want Peace now, we know all others want Peace as much as we do. Therefore, we receive compassion, love and joy within us. We share these gifts.

When we stumble as a result of fear or doubt and create suffering within and around us, we stop and accept our humanness. We give thanks for PEACE and we are restored

In appreciation for the life we are now experiencing, we commit to do all we can each moment to keep the life flow loving, full of life and peaceful.

Thank you God for returning to us our memory that we are your children. As we are of you our Light can only grow brighter as we radiate your love.

Do You Have A Nikon Camera You'd Like To Sell?

As her ministry expands, Rev. Jacqueline Dawkins would like to purchase a Nikon camera:

Many years ago, I had a prison ministry, where I transported families to visit their loved ones who were incarcerated. Along the way, I listened as they told their stories.

Now, my ministry has expanded to not only listening to their stories, but allowing them to be heard and shared by the rest of the world through a series of documentaries.

It's my desire to be a voice for those whose voices usually go unheard.

I'd like to buy a Nikon camera that is in excellent condition at a reasonable price.

I'd like one that is suitable for photography and videography, and hopefully includes several lenses and other accessories.

I can be reached via email at jacqueline\_dawkins@ymail.com
